WINE
2005 MCPRIE MYERS GRENACHE
L'ANGE ROUGE

McPrice Myers

Tasting Notes

A blend of 68% Alta Mesa Vineyard and 32% Larner Vineyard, this wine has a beautiful ruby garnet color, followed by a nose of raspberry liqueur, black cherry, rose petal, brown spice, and wild mountain flowers. This year I have dedicated this favorite of mine to my grandmother, Roberta Myers, who left us in 2005 to be with the angels. "L'Ange Rouge" is the French term for the "red angel," which my grandmother certainly was and still is. This wine really stretches its legs with bright cherry, raspberry, ripe tannins, and a long full finish. I feel this wine is a fitting tribute to a strong lady with a graceful presence and a personality that will never be forgotten.
