Notes:

In 1986, Dave Phinney's mother and father encouraged his interest in art by giving him the original engraving by Francisco Goya known as "The Prisoner". In 2000, Dave experimented with an abandoned lot of Zinfandel by adding Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Petite Sirah and Charbono to it. In 2007, the Wine Spectator recognized "The Prisoner" as #17 in their Top 100 Wines of the World. Dave's admitted, and modest, secret to this wine's success is really expensive grapes. One word completely describes this wine: Deep. Vineyard sources include Morisoli, Tofanelli, Page Nord, Taplin, Solari, Las Madres, Fulton and Beatty Ranch.
